1830's Rendezvous & Spanish Colonial Art Market

Great for Collectors, Historians, Artists, and Foodies!

All Day Fun for Families! Music, Dancing, Storytelling, American Indian fashion show, mountain men demonstrations and so much more!

Experience a Day in the Old West

Two art genres come together with a rendezvous to celebrate the 1830's. The Southwest's most celebrated Spanish Colonial artists along with leading Western artists demonstrate and sell their art. Interpreters portray colorful Mountain Men and Women trappers and traders from the Bent's Old Fort era. Entertainment includes Fiesta Colorado (Flamenco) and The Southwest Musicians (traditional Hispanic Folk music). Enjoy an old fashioned taffy pull, cigar box guitar making, and wood working presentations, cultural crafts, and storytelling. A fun event for the entire family!

Trappers, Traders, Black Powder Shooting & Tomahawk Throwing

Experience Mountain Men and Women trappers and traders demonstrating and selling their wares including trade silver, moccasins, beaver skin hats, and buckskin period dress. Discover life in the 1830's with demonstrations such as hide-tanning, primitive fire-making, rope making, black powder shoot, tomahawk throw and dutch oven cooking.

San Isidro Farmers Market

Returning this year will be the San Isidro Farmers Market with roasted chile peppers, specially made honey, hot kettle corn, root beer and so much more!

Plein Air Festival "paint out" Site

The 1830s Rendezvous & Spanish Colonial Art Market is one of the locations chosen by Colorado Plein Air Festival as a "paint out" site. Registered artists will make their creations "en plein air" (in the open air) throughout the weekend. Onlookers will have an opportunity to see artists creating their works at the market on Saturday and Sunday.
