

Bree Black Horse: Issaquah, Washington

Seminole

Paintings and Ledgers

Using a bright color palate and primarily working in colored pencil and acrylic on canvas, Bree expresses her heritage in a contemporary way. Bree won Best of Show at the Great Falls Indian Art Youth Market in 2006 and has attended the Heard Museum Indian Art Market the past few years. She was also First Runner-Up for the Miss University of Washington Powwow 2004-2005. Bree is currently a full time student studying political science and philosophy at Seattle Pacific University.

