Florentino Bailon describes his work as contemporary. He uses lots of turquoise in various colors. He also uses seashells and other semi-precious stones in sterling silver. Mr. Bailon belongs to the “Native American Vendor Program” in Santa Fe at the Palace of the Governor on the Plaza. The vendor program requires all artists to follow “jewelry standards” that were enacted by the program. Mr. Bailon works and lives on the reservation.