

BJ Stepp, Elk City, Oklahoma

*Southern Cheyenne/Cherokee
Mixed Media*

Born and raised in Western Oklahoma, BJ Stepp is a descendant of the Red Moon band of Southern Cheyenne people as well as the Oak Ridge community of the Cherokee Nation of Oklahoma. After receiving mentorship and teaching during studies at the Institute of American Indian Arts in Santa Fe, NM. and Southwestern Oklahoma State University in Weatherford, OK. BJ utilizes non-typical experiences of his culture and philosophical thought to create “Phenomenal” imagery in an ongoing dive into eclectic artistic expression.
