

Shondinii Walters, Ponderosa, New Mexico

Diné (Navajo) Nation

Paintings/Sculptures/Jewelry

Shondinii Walters is a Diné artist originally from Tuba City, Arizona. She attended Diné College where she worked toward her Associate's Degree in Social and Behavioral Science. Shondinii had a life changing experience that caused her to move and continue her education at the Institute of American Indian Arts in Santa Fe, New Mexico. Her artworks include multiple mediums such as painting, sculpture, and jewelry. Each medium derives from different inspirations of family, and cultural experiences. She currently works from home and maintains a family of four in Ponderosa, New Mexico, near Jemez Pueblo.

